

PRISM PRESENTS

PRISM Risk Control Zoom Training:

Heat Illness Prevention for Employees and Supervisors

A Zoom Webcast with Juan Cajandig
PRISM Sr. Risk Control Specialist, CSP, CFPS, MAS, ARM

September 15th
9:00 AM-10:30 AM

Course description:

The course consists of:

- 1 Zoom guided discussion; 1:30 minutes
- End-of-course exam (optional)
- The end-of-course exam measures the students' knowledge of the course learning objectives.
- The exam consists of 20 true/false questions.

Who should attend?

- Employees
- Supervisors
- Managers
- Department Heads
- Senior Management
- County CEOs and City Managers
- Risk Managers
- Safety Officers

Guided discussion learning objectives:

- Discuss the workplace conditions that has led to heat illness related deaths in California.
- Explain why employers must have a Heat Illness Prevention Plan.
- Explain why employees and supervisors must be trained in Heat Illness Prevention procedures prior to exposure.
- Explain environmental risk factors.
- Explain personal risk factors.
- Explain Heat Illness, first aid treatments, and the 5 medical conditions associated with it:
 - Heat rash
 - Heat syncope
 - Heat cramps
 - Heat exhaustion
 - Heat stroke
- Explain acclimatization.
- Explain what conditions create shade.
- Explain the procedures for when shade must be provided.
- Explain the procedures for making shade available.
- Explain the procedures for providing water to employees.
- Explain employer high heat procedures.
- Explain employer Emergency Response procedures.
- Discuss supervisor responsibilities and duties for implementing Heat Illness Prevention procedures.
- Explain the procedures for supervisors getting weather forecasts.
- Explain how to use a Wet Bulb Temperature Chart to assess heat illness risk.

Register

Questions? Email DMCGILL@PRISMRIK.GOV