

Bridging the Gap Between Risk Management and Law Enforcement: A Success Story

(1 PM - 2:15 PM)

Paul Lo Verme, County of Ventura, 2018 EIA EAGLE Award Winner

The County of Ventura Risk Management staff had an objective: build a relationship with law enforcement to bring down claims costs.

Come to this session to hear about the County's EAGLE Award winning relationship building program. Learn about the impact it had on their law enforcement claims, which included immediate claim resolution, litigation reduction, and enhanced defense strategies in defending officers. Their successes were measurable and verified using key metrics within their claims operation.

Cyber Attacks Hitting Public Agencies: A Panel Approach to Finding Solutions

(2:30 PM - 4:00 PM)

Richard Egan, Lassen County

Special Agent Darryl Elliott, FBI

Eric Westrom, Synoptek

Alex Ricardo, Beazley

At the most recent RIMS conference, it was suggested that cyber insurance could be one of the most expensive risks for public entities in the next 5-10 years. It is also likely that your IT platform has already been hacked, and that the villain is lying in wait in your system!

Hear lessons learned from an EIA member about their entity's cyber attack and how the FBI helped them. Takeaways also include cyber liability insurance coverage options and mitigation resources from EIA's partner program service provider.
